

The law doesn't for other business to sell to their competition at discount rates, why should the phone company be any different. Lets get rid of ridiculous rules that are forcing the 'real' phone companies out of business and creating chaos in the telecommunications industry.